How are you spending the summer?

Lead

Life is going rather well for Ricardo Silva from Cool & Vintage in Lisbon. Shortly after the restoration of his Land Rover Series 3 was completed, the café racer of his dreams was delivered. A photo shoot in the Portuguese sunshine was inevitable...

Is there a better way to spend the summer months than rattling along the Portuguese beaches in an open Land Rover Series 3, complete with a café racer in the back? The sand-coloured icon pictured was built in 1979 and, according to Cool & Vintage, is one of the most well-preserved specimens of its kind. Ironically, the BMW R75/6 café racer has been nicknamed 'Tank', and is most definitely not for sale.
