With the magnificent Countach nearing the end of its life by the late 1980s, and fresh funds available with the Chrysler takeover in 1987, Lamborghini accelerated the development of its replacement.

Known as the Diablo, after a fighting breed of bull raised by the Duke of Veragua, the new car was initially styled by Marcello Gandini but Chrysler's designers also had some input much to his chagrin, softening the shape somewhat. Launched to the public at the Hot
