Registration Number: VLT 725G Chassis Number: 576

Introduced in 1967, the 3 litre, 6 cylinder MGC looked very similar in appearance to its little brother the MGB, but closer inspection revealed the bonnet 'bulge' and carburettor 'blister' together with larger, wider tyres showed that these powerful little cars meant business.

With one owner from new until 2004 this particular example is described as being in very good condition. From 2004 the car was sold to the previous owners neighbour and as such has had only 2 owners from new. The car was rebuilt in the early nineties by marque specialist Chris Montague Coachworks in North West London at great expense and to the detriment of the first owner's health. Sadly the re-commissioni
