Beschreibung

One of the limited run of 100 right-hand drive cars, this car is finished in Cobalt Blue with matching electric-operated hood and leather seats and is described as being in good condition throughout. This example was first registered on 28th February 1991 and prior to this it was used by Porsche GB as its in-house display car at the company's Reading headquarters following its arrival in the Great Britain on 30th January 1991. The car has had three previous owners with the last one being in possession of the car from September 1994 until June 2007. In this 13 year period it only covered 30,649 miles, hence the current low mileage of 73,000 miles from new, and it has just benefited from a full major service, replacement front brake discs and pads, replenishment of the air conditioning system to R134a specification, a brake fluid change and new timing belts (all done at 70,572 miles), the steering pump was also recently replaced at 70,045 miles. Equipped with a Porsche anti-theft immobi
