- High quality restoration
- High standard of finishing
- Light, fast car
- No reserve

We know that since 1962 this car has had just four owners, the earliest two being women : in 1962, 1991, 2003 and 2009 - the date it was acquired by the current owner. In very sound condition, this dark red X87 saloon was treated to a high quality restoration during the 2000s, the details of which appear in the file. Since 2009, it has been well maintained with work to the gearbox following a problem with reverse gear sticking.

This interesting model boasts a particularly high level of finishing, and is full of interesting details, such as elegantly shaped aluminium hubcaps and aluminium roof rack. The interior is upholstered in high quality fabric, with a roof net, a dashboard with white Bakelite accessories and a period ashtray accessory in the shape of the car. Accompanied by a re-issue of the driver's manual, it displays 3,928 km on the odometer. With an aluminium body, this is a light car that, equipped with its famous flat-twin engine, had an outstanding performance for its day. In this condition, it represents a particularly interesting opportunity.
