In 1971, the Rolls-Royce Corniche was the successor of the Silver Shadow. Initially, the Corniche was available as coupe and convertible. However, the convertible was the most popular of the two. Rolls-Royce produced various models of the Corniche from 1971 to 1996. In case the car looks familiar: from 1984 the same model was also sold as the Bentley Continental.

Many celebrities purchased this Rolls-Royce model. Paul McCartney, David Bowie, Frank Sinatra, Dean Martin, Elton John and Zsa Zsa Gabor, to name a few. They fell for the combination of luxury, class and power of the Corniche. Its 6.75 L V8 engine produces 220 bhp, which results in a top speed of 200 km/h.

This 1978 model comes with a beige leather interior, air conditioning and cruise control. Recently, the hood was renewed. The car is in excellent condition and has always been maintained with care.
