stunning, UK-supplied Porsche 911 (991) Targa 4S was bought from Porsche Centre Leicester by rock legend and Jamiroquai frontman, Jay Kay, in October 2016 when it was 18 months old and had done just 8,400 miles with one owner. What appealed to Jay was the fantastic colour scheme of Night Blue Metallic and Black and the car's exceptional specification from new which included the following options in addition to the high standard specification. 20-inch Sport Techno wheels, Bose surround sound, Sport Chrono package, bi-Xenon headlights including PDLs, sports exhaust system, interior stitching in white, Telephone module, Reversing camera inc. park assist, electric folding mirrors, cruise control, heated seats, electric sports seats, clear glass tail lights, integrated rain sensor, leather steering column casing, 6 disc CD/DVD autochanger, rear centre tunnel in leather, multi-function steering wheel, aluminium brushed interior pack, aluminium brushed centre console, door sill guards in stainless steel, Tracking system, online services and fitted floor mats! Today it has covered just 11,600 incident free miles having been serviced by Porsche Centre Hatfield in April 2017 and is offered in outstanding condition with warranted mileage, an MoT until June 2019, and all the original service books, hand-pack, and spare keys. A very special and rare car that looks fantastic with the Targa top both up and down and is surely a future classic.
