Beschreibung

Power: a five-letter word that squarely sums up the 930 Turbo. Inspired by Porsche's 935 race car and pushed by Saudi-Syrian entrepreneur Mansour Ojjeh, CEO of TAG Heuer, the Slantnose or 'Flachbau' 930 featured a punchy 300hp engine and the 935's distinct front end, with additional performance options able to reach the 330hp mark.

Delivered new to the Royal Family of Jordan, this low-mileage M505 example is one of 948 units built and it is fully matching numbers. In late 2019, before our acquisition of the car, it received a full recommissioning service from marque experts in the Netherlands.

Fun fact: King Hussein was so impressed with this car's Moss Green paint, he ordered his 959 in the same colour!
