It is known that Porsche makes exclusive cars. But this Porsche 911 993 Turbo convertible is part of an illustrious company. Porsche Exclusive (formerly known as Porsche Special Wishes) built only 14 copies at the insistence of Fritz Haberl, owner of HAMAG, the largest Porsche dealer in Germany. When he saw the new 993 cabriolet at the Geneva Auto Show in 1994, he immediately was enthusiastic and urged Porsche to develop a limited 993 Turbo convertible version. Porsche agreed on the condition that Haberl himself would recruit 10 customers who would buy the 993 Turbo convertible. He did and so Porsche built 14 unique cars and gave them their own 993 production type (993630) and their own VIN series (SS338501 to SS338514).

Technically speaking, the 993 Turbo convertible has more in common with the 964 3.6 Turbo (M64/50). Because this 993 shares its turbo heart with its predecessor; the 964. The 5-speed (G50/52) manual gearbox, drive and suspension are all specially made for this turbo. All cars were subsequently reduced according to the wishes of the specific customer. One 993 went to the Sultan of Brunei, another to Dr. Weber, the manager of Michael Schumacher. Only the colors silver grey, black, polar silver and dark blue are used in this series.

This Porsche 911 993 Turbo convertible is number 8 in the series with number SS338508. The 3.6 Turbo engine delivers 360 hp with a top speed of 280 km/h. The colour palette of this Porsche is distinguished with a black fabric hood and green leather interior. The red 'Big Red' calipers contrast nicely with the black metallic paint and the 17-inch alloy wheels. The grey leather interior is well maintained and invites you to take a seat in this one-of-a-kind sports car. With only 32.500 on the clock, this Porsche is ready for you in our showroom. Come and experience this unique car!

This Porsche 911 is equipped with the following specifications:

- * 17" Speedline alloy wheels
