Beschreibung

For sale is this super nice Porsche 911 Targa from 1974, the first year of the so-called G-model. Beautiful authentic color combination in Indian red with black interior.

The body is in very good condition and was recently repainted. The interior is also in good condition with minimal signs of wear, but the technology is what distinguishes this 911. The engine was recently overhauled and all invoices and photos are present. The rest of the technology is also in top condition, making the car fantastic to drive. The engine feels very powerful and the gearbox is very easy to shift. The car also comes with a small file with invoices for recent maintenance. The engine overhaul dates from 2020.
