Beschreibung

The "Intensa Emozione," Italian for intense emotion represents a car whose 6.3 litre naturally aspirated V12 engine develops 780 horsepower and 760 Nm of torque, in a handy 1250 kilos package which can generate 1350 kilos of net downforce at around 300 km/h!

The poster is heavily inspired by the futuristic outlook of the car and is created by the team of designers with meticulous standards. Based on Apollo's detailed data which provides accuracy of every minute piece and angle, with our artistic input perfectly conveys the combination of the very latest state of the art technology and the fun of driving a wonderful car.
