Beschreibung

This 2300 S Coupé, one of the most expensive Fiats at the time, is a Swiss delivery and was acquired by the vendor in 2005 and added to his collection. The last few years the car has been stored. The coachwork shows some corrosion and local repairs and would benefit from a proper restoration. The leather interior is still in original condition with corresponding signs of use. The engine runs, the gearbox is working but the brakes will require an overhaul. The Fiat currently has a Swiss registration.
