Beschreibung

This 1957 Corvette with its 4.6 liter V8 engine, 220 horsepower and a four speed manual gearbox was restored a number of years ago and, in it's over 60 years, one stage received a type correct exchange engine of a later year. According to the registration document the C1 was imported into Switzerland from Spain a number of years ago. The car is driving impeccably and presents itself in good to very good general condition with the last Veteran MOT completed in March 2020.
