May 2002 Classic Malts Rally

"I want to invite you to join the small group of people who will be able to enjoy a very special event this May.

You'll know, perhaps, that we support a successful Classic Car Rally, the Classic Malts Trial, which runs for a fifth year from the 12th-18th May.

For some years now, I have wanted to create a Classic Tour that enables a fortunate few to share the atmosphere the rally undeniably creates whilst travelling in style, staying in comfort, seeing parts of Scotland and experiencing things that, by virtue of its purpose and the sheer numbers involved, are closed to participants in the Trial.

The result is The Classic Malts Tour. Just thirty people will be able to say that they took the very first, and we plan to make it very special for them.

From Wednesday 15th May to the spectacular Edinburgh Castle finale on Saturday 18th May, our guests will see a Scotland no-one sees. Touring in classic cars by day, they'll spend time in the finest surroundings at Drummuir Castle, on Speyside, at Royal Lochnagar Distillery, on the Balmoral Estate, Deeside and at Gleneagles.

If you come, you'll be in exceptional company. Those who join the Tour will do so by private invitation only. They will be personally looked after throughout. Fine dining and remarkable hospitality will ensure that every moment is enjoyed.

The price of the Classic Malts Tour will be £2,000 per person. It includes every detail of the organisation, hospitality and accommodation; you may bring your own classic car, or we can arrange to hire one for you."
