Win an Aston Martin DB7 Vantage and entry to the Gumball Rally!

Over the last month our Aston Martin has been living the highlife, rubbing shoulders with celebrities and their cars at the Cartier Polo International and at Jodie Kidd's launch party for her new events company 'Prêt a Polo'.

The Aston is now taking a break from the spotlight and is socialising with equals under the watchful eye of performance car specialist; Joe Macari.

One lucky winner will soon become the owner. They will be the first and rightful owner of a 2003 Aston Martin DB7 Vantage.

This monstrous, yet beautiful 6 litre V12 Grand Tourer was built to eat up Europe's Autoroutes and twisting mountain passes, and do it in the company of other equally glamorous pedigrees.

With this in mind we have entered it into the infamous and exclusive Gumball rally running next April from Paris to St Tropez via Morocco - the car will be there, the driver....could be you!

How it works: We are selling 3000 tickets at £75 each, the draw will take place after the last ticket is sold, winner takes all: 1 x Aston Martin DB7 Vantage, 1 x entry for the DB7 in the Gumball Rally and £5000 spending cash.

How to enter? Visit www.rushcomp.com

Entering is one thing, but the real risk is winning!
