Porsche Cayman S - to launch at Frankfurt

08 September 2005 | Classic Driver

The latest mid-engined car in Porsche's range, the Cayman S, will make its international debut at the Frankfurt Show next week. With a 3.4 litre six-cylinder 'Boxer' engine producing 295 bhp, dressed in coupé bodywork, the car is sure to be a success.

In advance of the official unveiling, the Stuttgart company has revealed more photographs of the exciting new car:
