H&H to sell rare ex-Works Healey Silverstone

At their next auction, on September 13 in Buxton, Derbyshire, H&H will be selling one of five prototype Silverstones. Chassis X2 was then transformed into the first production car (chassis D1).

JAC 100 was driven on the 1949 Alpine Rally by Donald Healey and Ian Appleyard, where the Silverstone won its class, finished second overall and was the first British car home. In August of the same year, it was one of three works Silverstones entered for the International Trophy meeting at the circuit that inspired its name. It finished fifth in class with Tommy Wisdom at the wheel and in doing so secured the team prize for Healey.

It was then retired from its works competition duties and turned into a press demonstrator, thereby featuring in the Autocar, Motor and Motor Sport magazines of the time and the Daily Mail. Roy Salvadori then briefly owned JAC 100 before it was sold to N H Yates who subsequently raced it at Goodwood on a number of occasions.

The car is said to be in very good overall condition and is estimated to fetch £80,000-90,000.

26th July 2006 Sale at Buxton - Review and Results

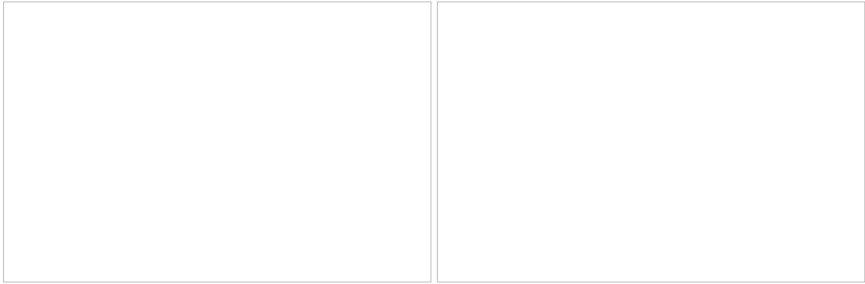

1939 Lagonda V12 Drophead Coupe - Sold for £81,700

H&H sold the 'barn find' 1939 Lagonda V12 well above estimate at £81,700 (including buyer's premium) at their recent Buxton Sale. Just one lot in a £1 Million + auction and the company was justifiably pleased with the results.

Other cars selling of note included the 1961 Flat Floor Jaguar E-Type 3.8-litre Roadster for £50,525, the pretty 1933 Lagonda 3.5-litre Pillarless Saloon finished in grey over silver for £32,250 and the Bentley 4.25-litre Vanden Plas-style Tourer eventually selling for a shade under £95,000.

The 1998 Aston Martin V8 Vantage finished in midnight blue – once the property of the former Burton Group Chairman, Sir Ralph Halpern – found a new home for £66,650.

1972 Rolls-Royce Corniche Coupe - Sold for £14,512 1998 Aston Martin V8 Vantage Supercharged - Sold for £66,650
