The Classic Motor Show 2006

The Classic Motor show, held at Birmingham's NEC from 27th to 29th October, caters for the enthusiasts and collectors of vintage, rare and modern classic vehicles.

The Classic Motor show, held at Birmingham's NEC from 27th to 29th October, caters for the enthusiasts and collectors of vintage, rare and modern classic vehicles.

The biggest and best show of its kind in the UK, it boasts a display of over 1,000 amazing classic and rare cars from all eras, ranging from historic racing cars and marques dating over a hundred years old, to the latest releases from manufacturers such as Ferrari, Daihatsu and Citroen. The cars are not only from museums but are also shown by individual collectors.

For those with a passion for speed, there will be an array of supercars such as Ferraris and Porsches on display throughout the show including the Ferrari Enzo, Dino and 308GTB and a celebration of the Porsche Carrera culminating with the Carrera GT. Lamborghini Countachs and an Ultima will be on display along with Maseratis and GT40s, creating an amazing collection of ultimate power vehicles.

The Classic Motor Show is a must for anyone with a passion for motoring. With a wide range of exhibitors including classic car dealers, vehicle restorers, car manufacturers, car clubs and an array of trade stands.

TV motoring experts Mike Brewer from 'Deals on Wheels' and 'Wheeler Dealer', and Mark Evans from 'Is Born' will be hosting interactive seminars in the new look drive through live stage. Experts will be on hand to offer mechanical advice and demonstrations in the Restoration Theatre
