Subtitled 'Ferrari et les Prestigieuses Italiennes', Bonhams' annual Gstaad extravaganza features over 40 high-value Italian cars, such as this c.1960 Maserati 3500GT Series 1 Coupé estimated at CHF80,000 - 100,000.

It's been a couple of years now since the pre-Christmas sale in its fairy-tale snowy setting was an all-Ferrari affair. The marque from Maranello remains the most numerous, however, with 19 examples in the catalogue, many of them proudly carrying Certification from Ferrari Classiche.

large opening roof, nicely colour-coordinated in grey with a red interior. It's estimated at CHF15,000 - 20,000, and another more economical entry is the 1963 Lancia Flaminia 2.8-Litre 3C Superleggera coupé for CHF40,000 - 50,000. Finished in metallic grey with red leather interior it's a handsome car.

And now for something completely different – the 1960-type Ferrari Dino 246 Formula 1 Racing Single-Seater By Bob Houghton/Graypaul Motors c.1986. Built by marque expert Houghton in the late-80s, this is a superbly constructed replica – using several original components – of the last of the top-line front-engined F1 cars. Its estimate is CHF1,000,000 - 1,200,000 – perhaps 10% of the price of an original (if you can find one, as most were scrapped or converted to rear-engined cars).

1980 Ferrari 512 Berlinetta Boxer -
CHF140,000 - 160,000

1952 SIATA 208 CS 2+2 Berlinetta -
CHF450,000 - 550,000

And for two totally different cars to finish on, there's the 1924 Alfa Romeo RM Four-Wheel Drive Winter Sports Half Track, a car built for a perceived Winter Sports market in the 1920s at CHF350,000 - 450,000, and a 1952 SIATA 208 CS 2+2 Berlinetta (CHF450,000 - 550,000), the 1952 Paris Salon car and a potential Pebble and Villa d'Este entry with its one-off Bertone coachwork.

Prior to the car sale, Bonhams will auction 138 lots of automobilia including The Alberto Ascari collection of motor racing trophies and ephemera: estimate CHF30,000 - 40,000.
