
GT Racer: Season Two Now Out on DVD

11 December 2009 | Classic Driver

Fans of the Alexander Davidis-directed historic racing TV programme 'GT Racer' will be pleased to know that the second series is now available on DVD.

The programmes cover historic GT racing – primarily the very successful Masters-run events – in Europe and the USA, as well as including footage of the 2008 Le Mans Classic and the Carrera Panamericana retrospective.

From the fast curves of Magny-Cours, to the blind brows and dips of the Nürburgring, via the flat-chat speed of the spine-tingling straights at Le Mans...

Enough, enough. It's all thoroughly entertaining stuff and, as good friends of both Alexander Davidis and Spirit Level Film, we're delighted to announce an offer that will let Classic Driver readers buy both series for the special price of £39.95 + postage & packing.

That's a saving of £15.00 over the regular price of £54.95.

You can watch a trailer on the Spirit Level Film's website and, once convinced, take up the special offer HERE.
