It's only recently that we were reporting from the launch of the high-flyer from Woking, and already the first McLaren MP4-12Cs are appearing in the Classic Driver Marketplace.

British dealer Tom Hartley has this Carbon Black RHD example available from his Derbyshire premises, boasting a carbonfibre interior upgrade along with orange stitching on the dashboard to contrast with the black leather upholstery. Other features include orange brake calipers, plus electric, heated, memory seats, a Meridian sound system, sports exhaust, and much more besides.
