The 19th British Classic Car Meeting, St Moritz – this weekend

11 July 2012 | Classic Driver

One of Classic Driver's favourite events will once again take place in the beautiful passes of the Engadin. Yes, it's mid-July and this weekend will see some of the finest British cars going head-to-head in the regularity rally that is the BCCM.

And this year, the special entries include such rarities as a Healey Westland (one of Donald Healey's earliest cars) and a Carlton-bodied Derby Bentley, a car that has won prizes at Pebble Beach.

The 2012 route, titled the 'Albula Rally', will start and finish in St Moritz on Saturday, 14 July, taking in Davos and the Flüela and Albula mountain passes.

The following day, from 10:30 onwards, the town centre of St Moritz will be filled with approximately 200 British Classic Car Meeting entries, competing in a friendly, but professionally run, concours d'elegance.

The British Classic Car Meeting will take place from 14-15 July in St Moritz.
