Salon Privé 2012: Sneak look reveals best line-up yet

Lead

Working on a special video project today, to be shown later on Classic Driver, we were allowed a preview of this year's Salon Privé. With exhibits ranging from line-ups of F40s and 'Gullwings', to the original Gulf-Porsche transporter, trust us, it's looking good...

Other highlights include a sensational selection of Touring-bodied classics (including the one-off Lamborghini 350 GT 'Flying Star II'), so many cars from the ROFGO Gulf Collection that we became slightly overcome, and the latest supercars from Ferrari, Aston Martin, Lamborghini and McLaren.

You can also see the new Jaguar XF Sportbrake, pore over watches from Audemars Piguet and quaff Pommery champagne. All in the most beautiful English late-summer weather. Well it was nice, today, anyway.

Recommended.
