The Range Rover Velar Prototype was the first of its kind

Lead

With the fourth-generation Range Rover just making its international debut, we spent some time in one of the very oldest originals, an early development prototype not even carrying the Range Rover badge...

The superb Davos White car – kindly loaned by Classic Driver dealer Graeme Hunt – is a ‘Velar’. Watch the video and see how the car got its name, and find out what it’s like in town, and around.
