The Porsche 356 Speedster is one of the most desirable of all classic open two seaters. It is no surprise then that many companies have sprung up to cater to a market that perhaps cannot extend to the real thing. Amongst those at the top of their game is Chesil and it is one of their extremely well put together examples that is presented here today. This elegant example is supplied with a Porsche 914, 2 litre engine mated to a four-speed manual gearbox. It is one of the Rare Streetbeetles, the prototype of Chesil. With just 8,500 miles recorded and presented in period Porsche red with correct speedster leather seats, it was extensively refurbished by the Chesil factory in 2002 and represents an accurate r
