Ford's XP Coupé has long been regarded as one of Australia's most iconic Sixties motor cars, an ultra cool, stylish hardtop that will never go out of fashion. The XP was the final facelift of Ford Australia's first locally-made Falcon and incorporated a number of significant improvements over the outgoing XM, most notably the option of power disc brakes up front (Girling items, a first on an Australian-made car). First seen in February 1965, the XP range consisted o
