This is an extremely well presented lefthand drive UK example which was originally supplied through

Lancia UK. It has had just two owners and has a recorded 69,000 to its credit. Those with an understanding of these extraordinary motorcars will know that this is considered low. It comes complete with a full main dealer service history and all the previous MoT test certificates include a current one. Supplied in Lord Blue with cream suede Recaro high back chairs, it also has full colour coded bodywork, central locking, immobiliser and high-end alarm. With all the handbooks, bills and associated paperwork, this Evo II is staggeringly fast and should outpace most modern Porsche offerings.
