Registration Number: OLH3 Chassis Number: 660280

The XK120 became a massive success on both road and track where it scored numerous victories, with many drivers including Stirling Moss, Peter Walker, Peter Whitehead, Leslie Johnson and Ian Appleyard; indeed, in XK120C/C-Type form it won Le Mans in both 1951 and '53, while its engine was to power three more Le Mans winners. The XK120 became a club racer of an elite few in the 1950s; many disappeared over time or have been modified extensively from their original specification. However, this particular car has remained original and survived unscathed over the last 40 years. OLH 3 was delivered new to Henlys of London in 1950 and first registered on the 22nd November 1950, originally registered
