This rare RHD Mercedes Benz 230 Universal is one of the even rarer RHD cars, having been manufactured on behalf of the Mercedes Benz works at their IMA factory in Malines Belgium. It presents itself in excellent condition and has been featured as the lead topic of the English Mercedes-enthusiasts magazine in march 2006. The well known author in Mercedes - Benz circles, Tim Slade tested this wagon and wrote a report, a print of which is available. Finished in graphite grey and with blue MB-Tex interior, the car is currently fitted with 2 front seats, which could be replaced by a bench, which is also available. The speciality is the
