Iso SpA of Milan was famous as the originator of the Isetta 'Bubble' car. This was the first and best of these miniature cars, and was built under licence in France, England and Germany. The company's next great design took a huge leap in both size and engine capacity, the latter increasing from 232cc to 5,359cc! Together with Jensen, Gordon Keeble, Facel Vega and others, Iso followed the sensible and popular fashion of the period in uniting a reliable and powerful American engine with a well thought-out chassis, the result clothed in high quality European coachwork. Among others, these included the famous Grifo as well as less wel
