The Mercedes Benz's 300 SL is undoubtedly one of the world's all time great sports cars and one of the most sought after by today's discerning collectors.

Originally conceived as a competition car, derived from a range of cars culminating in Stirling Moss's legendary Mille-Miglia-winning car, SLs won, among other events, the Le Mans 24 Hours and the gruelling Carrera Panamericana. In fact, the 300 SL won more competitions in its time than virtually any other car since. There are far too many victories to list here: suffice to say that no other manufacturer could field a car that could combine such speed, reliability and all round a
