Saturday 10th January 2009

2009 celebrates 40 years of Ford's iconic Capri model so it is highly appropriate that we offer, at Autosport International, this potent and successful historic racing Ford Capri 3.0S. 'Quick Brew' (the nickname this important Capri is known by), is perhaps the most familiar of all the Ford Capri's racing in the '70s Group 1 Historic Touring Car category today. Immortalised in miniature as a collectors' model by Corgi in their respected 'Drive Time' range (Ref: VA 10801), this iconic car has won invitations to the prestigious 2008 Goodwood Festival of Speed (where it was driven throughout the event by Lord March's daughter, Lady Alexandra Gordon Lennox, in a most spirited manner up the daunting hillclimb) and the BTCC 50th Anniversary meeting at Silvers
