Ten non-swimmers perfect for a trip to the pool

Lead

With turquoise water, fruity cocktails, bikinis, flip-flops and ambient sound, you have the makings of the perfect pool party. But a question remains: which classic do you take there...?

Without a doubt, arrive in James Bond's submarining Lotus and you'd steal the show. But that won't go under the hammer until September, so until then, an elegant convertible in a shade of aquatic blue would seem to be the perfect tonic. Here's a few we found in the market, including one from a model line Bond is already familiar with.
