Birthday gems: Ruby special editions celebrate 90 years of BMW motorbikes

Lead

BMW Motorrad might currently be celebrating its 90th anniversary to the fullest extent, but the festivities aren't only taking place in-house. French motorcycle atelier Ruby has produced a range of themed helmets using famous colours from the history of BMW's motorcycle division...

The 'Munich 90' collection sees Ruby's three traditional helmet designs offered in five colour schemes – including the iconic red and blue stripes worn by both two- and four-wheeled Bavarian racing machines over the years. Produced in limited numbers (though a precise figure has not yet been released), each will be individually numbered. Should you be lured by a lid with a legacy, and build-quality similar to that of your steed, you'll be relieved of between €700 and €1,080.
