

CLASSIC DRIVER

Ferrari 275 GTB: Restoration in pictures

02 November 2013 | Jan Richter

Photographing the restoration of a beautiful car is not simply of documentary value: the photography itself has great artistic potential. How else can you explain the aesthetics of this stunning series of pictures?

This glorious Ferrari 275 GTB, predecessor of the legendary Daytona, was thoroughly restored (down to the smallest screw) at the Martini Garage in Heilbronn. It is now for sale at the German dealership Axel Schuette.

<https://www.classicdriver.com/en/article/cars/ferrari-275-gtb-restoration-pictures>

© Classic Driver. All rights reserved.