Get to the point: George Clooney for W Magazine

05 December 2013 | Jan Baedeker

We don't know whether George Clooney had measles as a child, but Japanese artist Yayoi Kusama now appears to have infected the Hollywood star with polka dots for 'W Magazine'...

Two photographs by Emma Summerton, featuring Clooney and the polka dots, are now for sale in the online art market Artsy. In February, George Clooney will be starring in the film 'The Monuments Men' that he also directed.
