Boulevard beasts: Monaco GP racing cars from the Classic Driver Market

Lead

With the Monaco GP regarded as one of history's most prestigious races, every F1 car to have driven there is a legend in its own right. Nevertheless, there are no fewer than eight such machines – including one race winner – currently for sale in the Classic Driver Market...

The triumphant machine is the Brabham BT20 that Denny Hulme steered to victory in the 1967 Monaco GP, his first win en route to that season's Drivers' Championship. Having undergone a three-year restoration completed in 2010, the Brabham now leads the pack of Monaco-provenance F1 machines currently for sale via Classic Driver.
