Description

French title Engine n° 001299 - Two owners - Regularly maintained, superb presentation This model is the ultimate evolution of the Spider " Duetto " that was launched in 1964 on the base of the Giulia. It passed through various versions before finding a certain purity, in this form, that its predecessor had lost. It is powered by the famous four-cylinder twin-cam engine that contributed to the marque's heyday. This car was registered new on 23 January 1991 in Belgium, and the current owner bought it in 2004, making it a two-owner car. Since 2004, it has been regularly maintained by Espace Century, the Alfa Romeo specialists based in Chilly-Mazarin, near Paris. There are invoices detailing work that has been carried out, including the fitting of a cut-out switch and a Nardi steering wheel, the replacement of the universal joints in 2006, at the same time as the steering ball joints and the silent block bushings. Additionally, the seats were refurbished in 2008 and the rest of the interior has been superbly preserved. The hood is also in good condition and the car comes with its owner's manual. Externally, the " Nero " livery complements the elegant coachwork perfectly. At the time of our test drive, the odometer displayed 36,884 km.
