Kit for six: Bremont's watch for the new Lightweight Jaguar E-types

Lead

Often, watches dedicated to automotive legends fail to deliver, but this Bremont Lightweight Jaguar E-type edition – coinciding with the famous car's 're-launch' – is a little bit different...

Earlier this year, Jaguar announced that it would be building the six 'missing' Lightweight E-types from the intended 18-car run back in 1962. Prompted by this radical decision, British watch brand Bremont has teamed up with Jaguar to create a series of six pieces inspired by the car, and reserved for the six cars' lucky owners. We'll let Jaguar's Design Director Ian Callum explain why the Bremont Lightweight E-type Chronometer is a perfect tribute to the gorgeous car...

A perfect tribute
