Description

French registration

- Nice presentation
- One of the most popular of 911s
- Very high performance

Delivered new in France, this Porsche 930 Turbo has been owned since 2005 by its current owner. Metallic grey in color, it was repainted when it was in the possession of the previous owner, a Parisian enthusiast. The black leather interior is in good condition and the carpets were replaced in 2014. The car is equipped with a recent Alpine radio.

From a maintenance point of view, an invoices file, preserved since 2002, comes with the car. We see that in 2004 the car received a complete engine refurbishment at Rallye Sport Garage, the work totaling more than ? 8,500 in terms of costs. At the time, the odometer showed 107,247km, and since then the car has hardly been driven, as it shows just 118,400km currently. In 2014, the battery, fuel pump and probe for the turbo pressure were all replaced, as well as the engine oil filter, which was replaced too. The car comes with its original tool kit.

When the model was launched, in 1975, the 930 Turbo impressed everyone by its looks, what with its wing extensions and rear spoiler, as well as by its performance. Today, this iconic generation turbo model is highly sought after.
