Description

Italian title

- Exceptionally original condition
- Stamped service books
- Unusual attributes
- One owner until 2014, 50 000 km from new

The condition of this car makes it exceptional. Bought new in Bari in the South of Italy, it remained in the hands of its original owner until 2014 ! That amounts to almost 50 years in the same garage. The odometer records just 50,000 km and the car is in incredibly well preserved condition. The exterior paint and chrome work is superb and probably original, and the interior upholstery, in grey velours, is impeccable. The wood trim on the dashboard and doors has a beautiful shine and the controls work properly. Lifting the bonnet, one can see that the well-presented engine compartment has been maintained to the same high standard. The car retains the literature it was delivered with new, including the service book that has been stamped from new.

In addition to offering an unusually high level of refinement and comfort, the Mercedes 600 benefits from a powerful, high performance engine. Less conventional than a Rolls Royce, this car quickly attracted a clientŠle of politicians, celebrities and wealthy enthusiasts. This car, in the condition it is in, deserves to be part of an important Mercedes collection.
