- Almost new condition !

- Less than 25 000 km from new

Presented in late 1992, the Speedster was a limited series (956 examples) introduced towards the end of the 964's production. It shared the key features of the Carrera 3.2L, with a shorter, more inclined windscreen and a double bubble hard cover for the hood. The vast majority were the standard narrow version with just a few Turbo-look examples built to special order. The performance was similar to that of the Carrera 2 coup,.

This Speedster was sold new in Germany on 28 October 1993. It has been maintained by the same specialist from new and was last serviced in November 2013 at 24,744 km. It was bought by the current owner in 2014 and has covered 24,868 km today. According to the owner, the paintwork is original, as are the matching "Guards red" wheels. It has the optional RS finish, with race-type Recaro seats, a special steering wheel and RS door panels. The gearshift lever is covered with red leather and the seats are in black leather with perforated pearl grey leather inserts. The car still has the original Michelin Pilot tyres. This magnificent example is offered with its manuals and the original toolkit.

This Speedster is a sure investment, offering the added asset of endless enjoyment.
