The car of choice for a rock star is... a Ford Cortina?

30 October 2014 | Jan Richter

Ford's Mark I Cortina was not only embraced by the public, but by numerous racing drivers, too. You can still find the sporting saloon at historic racing meets, hillclimbs and rallies - and now even backstage at rock concerts, apparently...

Little rock star

Portugal-based Classic Driver dealer Cool & Vintage believes its 1966 Ford Cortina GT has the makings of both a rallying legend and a refreshing alternative to a stuffy tour bus for aspiring (and unusually pretty) rock stars. We can imagine a suitable sideways entrance to the after-show party, too.
