Bid on these classic Panerai watches

Lead

Invest in a classic watch from Patek or Rolex and you can't go wrong, but other brands are beginning to arouse the interest of collectors, such as vintage timepieces from Panerai. The Panerai Only sale by Artcurial demonstrates the level of interest this brand is now generating...

For Paneristi, Christmas will be taking place on 8 December this year. This is the date when French auction house Artcurial will hold a sale in Paris dedicated exclusively to historic Panerai watches and, for this unusual auction, the Artcurial specialists have gathered together some rare models from Panerai's history. From the legendary Radiomir Egiziano of 1956 (estimate: 100,000 to 150,000 euros), through to a selection of the coveted Panerai with Rolex workings, there is a wide range of legendary divers' watches. We have compiled a selection of interesting pieces, or you can view all lots from the Panerai Only sale in the Classic Driver auction area.
