

CLASSIC DRIVER

New classes announced for Chantilly Arts & Elegance 2015

Lead

It proved to be one of last year's must-attend events – and, now that the concours classes for this year's style extravaganza have been revealed, we expect the 2015 Chantilly Arts & Elegance to be even more spectacular...

The class categories for the follow-up to last year's successful event have been completely overhauled, promising visitors a whole new display – albeit with no loss of quality. Among them will be an assembly of ACF Grand Prix cars, a dedication to 'iconoclastic interiors' and a tribute to 'The Famous Ladies' Cars' – might we see the Bergman 375 MM make another concours appearance?

Building on the familiar formula

Elsewhere, several classes will celebrate pre-War machinery, while GT cars, and Formula One Grand Prix Cars from 1966 to 1972, are both given a judging group. Two further displays are designated 'Special': a tribute to Jean Todt, and one more to be revealed at Rétromobile 2015. As with the 2014 event, the concours jury will preside over three challenges: the Concours d'Elegance, Concours d'Etat and Grand Prix Club. The 2015 Chantilly Arts & Elegance will take place on Sunday 6 September 2014; for further information, visit the official website.

Photos: Rémi Dargen for Classic Driver © 2014

Gallery

