

CLASSIC DRIVER

Art of the Italian Two Wheel - classic motorcycle exhibition in New York

Lead

Based in New York? Enjoy Italian design and classic motorcycles? All-round design god and avid bike collector Stuart Parr is currently hosting an exhibition in Manhattan that is not to be missed...

Two wheels good

As keen on riding his fleet of classic Italian motorcycles as he is collecting them, the producer of Eminem's '8 Mile' movie, Stuart Parr, is also a celebrated designer and architect. Projects such as 'Manhattan Loft' and 'Clearhouse' in Shelter Island, New York, highlight Parr's impeccable taste, and position him as a creative thinker operating at the top of his game. He's also something of a bike nut, as his latest exhibition 'Art of the Italian Two Wheel' eminently (we couldn't help ourselves) proves.

Italian masterpieces

Featuring exquisite models from brands such as Ducati, MV Agusta, Laverda, Magni and Benelli, the show is located in a shabby industrial space in midtown Manhattan, which only highlights the two-wheel masterpieces even more strongly. The show opens on 18 April for three months. Visit www.stuartparrcollection.com for more information.

Photos: Thomas Welch for Selectism.com

Gallery

Source URL: <https://www.classicdriver.com/en/article/bikes/art-italian-two-wheel-classic-motorcycle-exhibition-new-york>
© Classic Driver. All rights reserved.