Lead

...but were too afraid to ask, will be taught at The Classic Car Symposium on 8-9 June 2015, in Cologne. Tickets are still available...

The English-language symposium is organised by the Historic Automobile Group International – which publishes the prestigious HAGI Index – in co-operation with Mercedes-Benz Classic. The focus of the event is the cultural heritage of the automobile and its modern status as an investment, as well as the latest developments in the field of restoration. Among the speakers at the lecture event are Fritz Cirener of Bosch Mobile Tradition, who will be joined by HAGI expert Dietrich Hatlapa, Prof. Dr. Frank Herrmann from Cologne University of Applied Sciences, Andrea Dragoni from Carrozzeria Touring, Richard Keller of the Musée National de l'Automobile, and Michael Bock of Mercedes-Benz Classic.
