The jury has spoken – and this year, the 'Trofeo BMW Group' has been awarded to an Alfa Romeo 8C 2300 Zagato. The beautiful pre-War spider was brought to Lake Como by American collector David Sydorick...

The Villa d'Este Concorso d'Eleganza jury has once again displayed a penchant for classic Italian coachwork, electing a Zagato-bodied Alfa Romeo 8C from 1932 as 'Best of Show'. The audience award – the 'Coppa d'Oro Villa d'Este' – was awarded to a Touring-bodied Ferrari 166 MM barchetta from 1950, which once belonged to Fiat patriarch Giovanni Agnelli.
