Evade the LAPD in Steve McQueen's special-order Porsche 930

Lead

It was Steve McQueen's bad-boy image that helped make him the legend he is today. In 1976, true to form, the King of Cool ordered a Porsche 930 from the factory, and had a kill-switch for the rear lights fitted – supposedly to help him evade capture by the LAPD...

Steve McQueen's 1976 Porsche 911 (930) Turbo – complete with special-order options such as Slate Grey paint and a LSD – will go to auction during Pebble Beach week via Mecum, on 13-15 August 2015.
