Mo Faraz's 'Car-Toons' show a humorous journey through time

Lead

Although graphic design artist Mo Faraz uses the latest technology to create his illustrations, his humorous works appear to come straight from a bygone era...

Nostalgic amusement

Comedy is an art itself, but Mo Faraz has managed to combine two forms in his latest illustration series, placing classic cars and their owners in a variety of comical situations. He visualises the odd scenarios in which classic car owners might find themselves and adds a subtle dose of satire, fuelled by his own experiences of ownership (he had his first classic Alfa Romeo at age 15). The simple yet beautiful silkscreen prints can now be bought through his website.
